

The Indiana "no call" law is one of the best pieces of legislation that is designed to protect the consumer. I object to any movement to overturn this very effective law.